Neil Johnson Celebrates 25 Years

With over 28 years experience in structured settlements, and 25 years as an independent Structured Settlement Annuity Broker, Neil is one of the longest standing brokers in the industry. Neil stepped onto the Structured Settlement stage in its infancy, at a time when the product and process were still foreign to most personal injury attorneys and claim professionals alike.

Emerging from 16 years in casualty claims management where he was introduced to "structures" from the "user/purchaser" side, Neil quickly became both a resource and educator within the industry. He has presented to the National Structured Settlement Trade Association (NSSTA), conducted local classes approved for CLE credit, testified before the Texas Senate Jurisprudence Committee and accepted speaking engagements before bar associations, various committees and many law firms.

Neil and Leah, his wife of 45 years, reside in Allen, TX. They have three living children and five grandchildren. Neil and Leah have traveled coast to coast, border to border on a touring motorcycle. Neil has participated in activities such as hang gliding, scuba diving, parasailing, and sky diving. Other "off the field," interests center around faith and family. He and Leah are members of Stonebriar Community Church in Frisco, and Neil serves on the board of two foreign mission organizations. He has served as an interim pastor, and taught Bible in churches and home groups for 50 years. He recently traveled to China to co-teach Bible classes in a Chinese seminary.

Today, in an unfavorable investment climate, Neil again leads the professional charge in promoting unique financial solutions and structured settlement strategies to meet the current and future needs of families disrupted by unexpected tragedy.

TESTIMONIAL

I met Neil Johnson many years ago when I was "forced" by a court appointed Ad Litem to work with Neil to obtain annuity quotes for minor clients for whom we had obtained a multi-million dollar recovery. Since then, I have always included Neil in the mix when requesting annuity rates and he has consistently outperformed every other broker. . . .

For nearly 12 years, I have used Neil exclusively as my settlement annuity broker because, without exception, he has always provided the absolute best returns for my clients.

In addition, Neil is always responsive, works tirelessly to provide multiple quotes for various structures, and is always more than punctual when providing quotes and testimony for prove-up hearings. He has earned my trust and respect, and has most certainly earned the trust and confidence of most court appointed Ad Litem and Dallas County Courts. I can offer no higher recommendation or praise for any annuity broker.

Neil Johnson is the champion for Plaintiffs in creating the absolute best scenarios to make the most out of their litigation recovery while safe guarding it! He brings to the table not only years of experience, but more importantly a compassion and understanding of what Plaintiffs have suffered. . . . He goes above and beyond to listen to the Plaintiffs' needs and desires and structures options that best suit their circumstances, and then ensures that they completely understand the benefits.

Neil is also indispensable to Plaintiffs' attorneys. He makes himself available to take our calls anytime, and jumps through hoops to try and find a solution to often times difficult situations. I have been very blessed to have Neil work with me on cases for over 14 years. Any Plaintiff's attorney that works with Neil is bringing a major benefit to their client by having Neil involved.
